[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO NOV. 11.

EASTERN STATES.

The Russian Fleet.

STATEN ISLAND, Nov. 12.—The Russian clipper Abreck, Captain Schantz, thirty-two days from Madeira, anchored in the lower bay last night. Capt. Schantz says he parted company with the Admiral twenty-seven days ago. Their arrival here may be expected at any moment. The Abreck was boarded by the U. S. cutter Norther at 9 o'clock this morning.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—To-day, Catacazy, the Russian Minister, accompanied by the Secretary, proceeded down the bay in Gen. Aspinwall's yacht and went on board the Abreck. They were received with the usual honors. They subsequently visited Admiral Rowan's flag ship and spent some time on board, where mutual congratulations were exchanged.

The Abreck left Madeira in company with the frigate Svetlona, and corvette Bogatry in longitude 21, latitude 31. Vice Admiral Possiet, chief of the squadron, gave orders to the Abreck to take a southerly direction course and proceed under steam to New York to rendezvous until the arrival of the Svetlona and Bogatry.

Charles O'Conor said yesterday that Tweed is taking preliminary steps that men take when they seek to elude justice, and flight to a foreign land. The police would not be very active in arresting him even now, if the Committee of Seventy could give power and they would not help them by informing them of his whereabouts. O'Conor believes Tweed will certainly fly, but many impediments are in his way. He did not think he would be the only prominent criminal who would leave the country, but wherever they go in Europe, they will find they cannot remain with impunity, but would be followed wherever the law can follow. As to Field, his seat in the Assembly will be disputed on the ground of fraud in elections, of which proofs are abundant. Seymour is sure to take the seat.

Murder of a Family.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 12.—This morning a family named Parks were found murdered in their house near Henryville. They consisted of Cyrus M. Parks and wife, Isabella, son John, aged 10; daughters Emilie, aged 17, and Ellen, aged 11. The heads of all were terribly beaten in and crushed with a blunt instrument. The brains of Parks, his wife and son, were scattered about the room. They were lying on beds. The daughters were found sitting in the kitchen alive but delirious and fatally hurt. Shots were heard in the night by the neighbors, but the bodies bear no bullet marks. Information was promptly forwarded to the police here. Parks was a leading member of the church near his house and much esteemed in the community. No clue is obtained to the murderers. Great excitement prevails in the vicinity, and should the villains be discovered they will probably be instantly lynched.

No Yellow Fever at Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 12.—No deaths from yellow fever have occurred during the past two days. Leading physicians advise patients that they may come back. Large numbers have already returned. The city Council has ordered a day of thanksgiving and prayer on account of the abatement of the disease.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Official Business.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The object of the recent visit of Evarts to Washington was in connection with business to be brought before the tribunal of arbitration at Geneva. No information has been received from Benjamin R. Curtis as to his acceptance of the appointment as assistant counsel.

A few claims have been received for presentation to the U. S. Commission which will re-assemble in this city on Tuesday. A. R. Howard, British agent, has been instructed not to present to the Commission claims of persons heretofore British subjects, who have become naturalized citizens of the United States.

The United States and Spanish Commission will proceed to consider claims in December. Before this Commission was authorized to receive them, a large number of claims for spoliations in Cuba were presented to the Department of State. Not more than nine or ten have so far been presented to the Commission in accordance with the prescribed forms.

The statement that several Spanish war-vessels had left Cuban waters for the purpose of seizing the Hornet, is pronounced untrue. The Spanish authorities have, already, been advised that serious trouble may result should the Hornet be seized while she is under the American flag. While it can't positively be asserted that she is privileged to carry our flag, her true character, nevertheless is a question for civil investigation, and not to be determined by the Spanish authorities with the aid of naval force.

Another subject in this connection forms the basis of complaint by the Spanish Government. It is asserted that not long ago a Spanish Consul at Port au Prince made a demand on the Haytien authorities for the surrender of the Hornet, but was refused. Our Minister had uttered a strong protest against the Spanish seizure. Some time after these proceedings the Spanish Consul, while passing the wharf where the vessel lay, was loudly derided by the crew, which, it is said, consisted of about 200 colored sailors. In consequence of these proceedings, the Consul returned to his Consulate, took down his flag, and the fact of the alleged indignity was communicated to our Government. Thus the matter now stands, with no prospect of immediate settlement of the question at issue. In the meantime Port-au-Prince is virtually blockaded by Spanish vessels, Hayti being too feeble to demand respect for her neutrality.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

General News.

LONDON, (evening), Nov. 12.—United States Minister Curtin telegraphs from St. Petersburg to London that there is a dreadful state of suspense regarding the Grand Duke Alexis. This will be relieved by news of dispatches received in New York.

Paris rumors continue in regard to the approaching departure of the Pope from Rome. La France to-day states distinctly that the Pope has intimated to Thiers his intention to establish his residence in France, and Thiers has made a strong effort to dissuade the Holy Father from this purpose without success, and finally placed at his disposal the Castle of Pez.

The French press generally discuss the recent speech of Gladstone, and deduct therefrom a necessity for France to seek henceforth terms with Russia.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 12.—The cholera is increasing in this city, and many deaths are reported.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Arrived overland last evening, F. Miller, wife and child, of Oregon; Mrs. L. G. Abbott, of Olympia.

Wheat at Liverpool is 12s 10d.

The steamer Prince Alfred will sail for Victoria on Wednesday, and the Oriflamme for Portland on Friday.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Gen. Beveridge, Republican candidate for Congressman at large in Illinois, had about 4,000 majority in Chicago.

The corrected returns from the Fifth Senatorial District, New York city, gives Norton (Tammany), 7,658; Benedict (Reform), 10,192.

Senator Casserly, of California, as might be expected, is much displeased that the Government should be meeting with any success in its judicial proceedings against polygamy in Utah.

Henry S. Foote, who is now seventy-two years of age, and who ought to know about as well as any man what the Democratic party is made of, has just written a letter in which he "most painfully apprehends that anything like a Democratic triumph in 1872 is an absolute impossibility."

THE TERRITORIES.

Work on the fog whistle at Cape Flattery has been suspended till next April on account of lack of material.

In the Woman's Suffrage Convention at Olympia the lady who presided was addressed as "Mrs. Chairman."

Steilacoom is waking up again and is very jolly over the belief that it has got the "terminus." When will this farce end?

The Olympia Transcript, alluding to Miss Anthony's lectures in the Sound regions, says: "Her logical powers have convinced many, and the cause of woman suffrage has been promoted by her efforts."

Unless General Crook in Arizona is permitted to carry out the orders first issued to him by the War Department, there is good reason to fear that the Territory will lose the major portion of its best and most worthy inhabitants, in which event, the Apache will be monarch of all he surveys.

The Montana hunters are getting too smart for this earth. First we heard that they captured the ibex with the lasso. Now we have it that another hunter, emulous of the achievement, armed himself with an ax, and, striking out for the haunts of the mountain sheep, crept stealthily up on the hills above a band, and chopped 'em tree down on them.

The Montana papers are jubilant over the prospect of early railroad and river connection with the balance of the world. They think the railroad will be so near the Missouri river next year that light draft steamers for low water can ply on the river up to Fort Benton, from the point of connection, leaving only 140 miles of staging and land travel to Helena.

CURRENT NOTES.

The Chicago lake crib is two miles from shore, and yet the keeper had to keep the top of the building continually wet to prevent its igniting on the night of the fire.

Georgia has found that her imported Swedes do not turn up remarkably well. They cannot endure the climate. There is too much sun and too little ice. The planters propose to look to the land of the troubadours for their laborers.

One of the "unreconstructed" of South Carolina uses these words in regard to the burning of Chicago. They would shine in the editorial columns of the Oregon Herald: "I glory in this fire—the burning of Chicago. It is but the chastisement of Providence at last, for their burning our cities of Atlanta and Columbus. Give them money for relief! Never; no, never! God is only punishing them for their infamy and guilt at last!"

In Austria there is now a political war on foot similar to that which for years agitated the United States. The local Diets claim the power of sovereign legislation, which is disputed by the Central Government at Vienna. The Bohemians are admonished by an imperial rescript that their Diet can't be allowed to change the laws enacted by the Imperial Parliament, and that they must not persist in such an attempt. It is threatened to dissolve the Diets of Bohemia and upper Austria. The Diets are aiming at decentralization and separate governments; the Vienna Cabinet is intent upon preserving the autonomy and central power of the Empire.

The St. Louis Democrat offers its readers the following belligerent advice: Our correspondents through Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota and even Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado, state that New York is pushing a perfect army of commercial travelers into the West, freighted with samples and hungry for customers. Our St. Louis merchants should take immediate steps to head off these gentry by covering all remunerative western territory with their own agents at once, and further than this, they should withdraw their custom from every New York wholesaler who so unfairly seeks to rob western cities of their legitimate and proper customers.

A clerk in the Sixth Auditor's office in Washington lost his wife and five children by the Chicago fire.

During the first week in the present month the number of small-pox cases in Philadelphia was 607, and the deaths, 95.

At Pioche, Nevada, they have to haul water 10 miles. One place at least is free from the extortions of a water company.

The Emperor Maximilian of Mexico has had a statue erected to his memory in Vienna, where he was held in higher repute than in the country he attempted to govern.

A few days ago as laborers were cutting a new road through a hill and hollow near Council Bluffs, Iowa, they excavated a sack containing $12,000 of gold and silver. The money was hidden there eighteen years ago by a man named Muir, who murdered a comrade Californian at that place. Muir was captured and hung by a mob of Californians. He said he had hidden the money under a stump in this hollow, but refused to tell where. Many have hunted for this secret treasure, but all in vain. The laborers shared the booty equally.

Melted Coin from Chicago at the Philadelphia Mint.

On the 15th ult., the counting of the melted coin from the Assistant United States Treasurer, at Chicago, was begun at the Mint, in Philadelphia. The Inquirer says:

The coin was taken from the large iron chests in which it had arrived, and spread upon tables where it was examined. By instructions received from Secretary Boutwell, an accurate account of this money must be made. To perform this duty Messrs. Jas. C. Eyster, O. B. Jones, William M. Bunkel, William S. Steel and Levi C. Cowperthwait were detailed, and at a little after nine o'clock in the morning the work commenced. The coin had evidently been shoveled up from the ruins of the vaults, and as it was poured forth from the bags was found to be mixed with particles of stone, mortar and burned rags. In many cases the silver and nickel coins, which melt much easier than gold, were found to have been run down by the heat, and in their melted condition had so fused with the gold as to render hundreds of dollars into one solid mass, which could not be separated except by the action of chemicals.

Considerable of the gold and all of the silver will have to be remelted and recoined before it can be again used by the Government. Most of the gold has been oxidized by the action of heat and water, but from a test made Wednesday by the assayers it is thought that a greater part of the whole mass can be cleared and reissued without going through the process of melting and recoining. This will be accomplished by the action of chemicals and washing, and will be more economical for the Government than the process of melting would be. The coin, as far as has been examined, consists $20s, $10s, $5s, $2½s, and $1s in gold, and all denominations of silver pieces, from the half dollar down to three cents. A few nickels and copper pieces have also been found. The duty of separating these coins from each other, classifying and counting them, was performed by the gentlemen above named, on Wednesday, and from the time at which the chest were opened until 9½ o'clock on Wednesday night about $258,000 were handled and put away to the credit of the Chicago Treasurer."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

EASTERN STATES.

A Mormon Communist.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Elder Lindsey, of Utah, in a sermon at Williamsburg, yesterday, referring to the prosecution of Mormons, said: "We are God's chosen people. He is working for us. A few weeks ago Chicago was destroyed. This is but a drop of water to what will soon happen. We were driven from that State. God said we should not live there."

Chicago News.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Fifty-one officers of the abandoned whaling fleet arrived from San Francisco yesterday, by the Burlington, Iowa, and Quincy railroad, and proceeded Eastward last night.

Mary Sullivan was burned to death in a fire which broke out in a tenement house, in Cherry street, yesterday. In another fire on Clinton street, John Mahon was suffocated.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Herald has the following particulars of the reception of the Abreck: At daybreak a strange vessel was made out. The stars and stripes were run up by the Congress, and responded to by the flag of Russia, quickly followed by a national salute of 21 guns from the Russian vessel with the American flag at the main. The Congress returned it from a battery of nine. Lieut. Commander Robertson was sent aboard the Abreck to convey the compliments of Admiral Rowan, and tender the usual courtesies to men of war. The Russian Captain accepted an invitation to dine with the Admiral, and, running the Vice Admiral's flag to the foretop, fired 15 guns, which were returned by the Congress.

At an entertainment on the Abreck, her chief officer gave the toast, "We are all glad to be in New York and drink to America."

The Abreck has not seen the rest of the Russian fleet since the third day after leaving Madeira, and being a slow sailor, she expected the others would be here ahead of her. It is believed they are close at hand, unless they went to Bermuda to repair the Bogatre's boilers.

There is no abatement of the excitement among the citizens of Brooklyn touching the municipal corruption in that city. Even yesterday was occupied in discussing and commenting upon the frauds. Rev. Henry Ward Beecher preached a political sermon in the evening, in the course of which he spoke to intelligent citizens of their indifference to political matters. He characterized the corrupting tendencies of the civil service as a standing threat against the liberties of the nation. Every custom house in the land (said he) is a bribing shop. If places of trust shall continue to be put up for sale, as they have been, this Government cannot long exist. Election frauds in Brooklyn are of the most astounding character. In one District the vote increased 50 per cent. over the highest ever before known; in another 75 per cent; in another 78 per cent., and in the 4th Ward the vote was greater than could by any physical possibility have been fairly polled.

The departure of Gen. Sherman will be delayed a day or two owing to rough weather and delay in the arrival of the Wabash in this city. Yesterday Gen. Sherman was with the President at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. During the day Gen. Butler called. Speaker Blain was also at the Fifth Avenue.

PICKINGS.

Young gentlemen who would prosper in love should woo gently. It is not usual for young ladies to take to ardent spirits.

A gentleman, on getting a soda and brandy, was retiring from a railway refreshment bar. "Recollect, sir," said the polite barmaid, "if you lose your purse, you did not pull it out here."

A Frenchman cannot pronounce "ship." The word is "sheep" in his mouth. Seeing an iron-clad, he said to a boy, "Ish dis a war sheep?" "No," answered the boy, "It's a ram."

Charleston people and police have discovered that the lovely lanes and country roads in the vicinity of the city are infested with what the local papers call "female highwaymen," or more properly highwaywomen.

A young lady at an evening party some time ago found it hard to use the expression, "Jordan is a hard road to travel," but thinking that too vulgar, substituted the following: "Perambulating progression in pedestrian excursions along the far-famed thoroughfare of fortune cast up by the banks of the sparkling river of Palestine is indeed attended with a heterogeneous conglomeration of unforeseen difficulties."

The Savannah, Georgia, News is responsible for the following: "Among the entries made yesterday at the Fair of the Industrial Association is a patent incubator, for the purpose of hatching chickens. During the Fair the incubator will improve the shining hour to the extent of hatching out five hundred chickens a day. Attached to the machine is an artificial mother, which, when the chickens are fairly hatched, assumes control of the brood, and proceeds to exercise the maternal functions after the most approved style.

There have been many men willing to die for their convictions, who have not needed to die for them. God read in their heart willingness and courage, but the sacrifice was not exacted because it was not required. What makes any sacrifice reasonable is the difference in value between what is given up and that for which it is given up. What makes a sacrifice admirable is the sorrow freely endured in the giving up, because of reason's estimate of the value and the certainty of the benefits love will secure. Abraham was put to the proof.

Make the simpleton a millionaire, and what will he do? Go to Vanity Fair, and buy folly which will only make him the gaudier, bigger simpleton. Make a wise man penniless—what will he do? Clean shoes, if nothing else offer; clean them well, because work should be done well; civilly, to gain respect; for nothing sometimes, out of love for some weary, bemired traveler; and busily, day by day, till promotion comes, because the sagest man must have a livelihood until God wills that he should carry his wisdom to a world more worthy of it.

The Cincinnati papers are making ghastly fun over the sickness of a well-known "resurrectionist" of that city. Here are two paragraphs: The report that "Cunny" had passed in his checks, after selling his "stiff" to the doctors, was premature. Cunny was in good condition at the City Hospital last evening, and in a fair way to recover and haunt the grave-yards this winter. Here is the other: "Cunny" swears he'll live long enough to have the "stiffs" of every one of the fifteen partners of the only "foil" sheet. When he read that notice of his death yesterday, he tore out three of his nine remaining gray hairs, and declared it was an outrage.

The Sunday school cause keeps progress with civilization. Its movement westward, with the course of empire, is as rapid as the march of material improvement. During the five months previous to September 1st, the American Sunday school Union organized by its missionaries, 39 new Sunday schools in Northwestern Minnesota, along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad and its branches. Into these schools were brought 1,170 scholars and 193 teachers were enlisted for their instruction. These missionaries are following so closely the pioneers in this newly opening empire that the young settlements are often provided with the Sunday school before the school house is built, but not before the Bible and its civilizing influences are needed.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, the leading organ of the Democracy of Ohio, and a representative of the uncompromising wing of that party, expresses its preference for Thomas A. Scott, of Pennsylvania, as a candidate for the Presidency.

The Attempt to Indict Gen. Sheridan.

To-day's dispatches state that the criminal judge at Chicago in his charge to the grand jury administered a severe rebuke to Gov. Palmer for stepping out of his way in the endeavor to have Gen. Sheridan indicted for the killing of Grosvenor by a young man in the militia service, who was doing guard duty at Chicago. Gov. Palmer's letter to the Attorney General on the subject, concludes thus:

It is not necessary in determining on the line of duty to be adopted to inquire whether the Mayor of Chicago, Lieutenant General Sheridan, Frank E. Sherman and his associates and supposed subordinates, who were agents by which the death of Grosvenor was produced, in assuming power they did not possess, and that while free government endures cannot be conferred upon them, were influenced by proper or improper motives or purposes. They assumed to suspend the operation of the Constitution and laws of the State and substitute in their stead the law of military force, to be defined and applied by themselves. They, by their lawless acts, acted and insulted the dignity and authority of the State, and have by their dangerous example weakened public confidence in the Constitution and laws, and in their attempt to enforce usurped and lawless authority they have sacrificed the life of a peaceable citizen. I have thus expressed confidence that Illinois, acting through the proper department of its government, is capable of protecting its own people, and of enforcing dignity and authority of its own laws. I have requested that you, in conjunction with the State's attorney of the Seventh Judicial Circuit, will bring all the facts before the Grand Jury of Cook county, in order that all persons concerned in the unlawful killing of Thomas W. Grosvenor may be brought to a speedy trial.

DR. ABORN ON NASAL CATARRH.

This is a chronic affection of the mucous membrane of the nostrils or the throat, originating in irritation or inflammation, and attended by more or less discharge. It is one of the most common, most disgusting, and finally, most destructive of diseases incident to the variable climate of our northern latitude.

In its early stages catarrh often fails to attract the patient's attention. [illegible] its approach. This is an unfortunate [illegible], because then, the most favorable period for treatment is thus unimproved, and because of the peculiar disposition of this disease to extend upwards to the frontal sinuses, backward through the Eustachian tubes to the middle ears, and down through the larynx, trachea, and bronchia, to the air-cells of the lungs.

The discharge from the affected part is at first a clear fluid, which may escape observation, unless it chance to be of a more than usually acrid character. As time goes on this gives place to a fluid that is thicker, and of a yellowish green color, and still later this may be succeeded by thick flakes or scales.

In all the more advanced stages the discharge are generally of an offensive odor, causing great annoyance to one's friends and to the patient himself, while his sense of smell remains. This annoyance from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, when, as sometimes happens, the delicate bones of the nose become [illegible].

Sometimes early [illegible] the character of Dry Catarrh. There is then a feeling of uneasiness, heat and stiffness in the nostrils, which are often (one or both of them) closed by thickening of the mucous membrane, and thus a difficulty of breathing becomes a prominent symptom.

On examining the nostrils in Chronic Catarrh, with instruments specially adapted to that purpose, we find their lining membrane thickened and of a deeper color than in health. There are seen little points of ulceration, upon which the secretion becomes hardened and forms crusts. When these are picked off the [illegible] surface is irritated, and frequently bleeds profusely.

In each case of Catarrh, the prominent symptoms are determined by the direction in which the disease extends. If this be upward there may be pain over and between the eyes, obstruction of the lachrymal ducts, causing the tears to flow over the cheeks, and possibly ophthalmic inflammation of the eyes. If backward, there will be thickening of the walls of the Eustachian [illegible], and consequent tendency to their obstruction, inflammation of the middle ear, [illegible] in the [illegible], and impairment of hearing. When the extension is downward, the voice becomes hoarse or whispering and [illegible], cough [illegible] with [illegible], and [illegible], to be followed too often by Consumption and Death.

In cases where the bones of the nose become [illegible] not only is the offensiveness of the breath increased, but there is a liability to serious personal deformities, among which are flattening of the nose.

The swallowing of catarrhal secretions deranges the functions of the stomach, causing indigestion and loss of appetite. Debility, paleness, lassitude, headache and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some instances the mental affection is one of [illegible], the patient being unduly annoyed by all the little perplexities of life. In others, the prominent feeling is that of the melancholy or depression of spirits, when the invalid can see no hope for himself or his affairs.

Allusion has been made to the extension of Catarrh by contiguity of surface along the natural air passages to [illegible] causing Consumption and Death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a catarrhal patient is, every breath, of it, [illegible] by exhalations from the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor in its unending circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would suppose that this consideration alone would be sufficient to induce every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

The treatment of Catarrh is in part constitutional, whereby the energies of the whole system are called to aid in expelling its destructive enemy. It is in part local, whereby the discharge is made less offensive, diminished and finally arrested, and, whereby the ulcerated surface is [illegible] and restored to its normal condition.

By means of new and ingenious apparatus, Dr. Aborn is able in Catarrh and all other affections of the respiratory organs, to apply his [illegible] directly to the [illegible] localities. [illegible] is thus made more efficient as well as less disagreeable. In many [illegible] the first application of the topical treatment will change the character of the disease and materially purify the breath.

A PATIENT GAINS 15½ POUNDS AND RECOVERS HIS HEALTH IN FOUR WEEKS TIME UNDER THE SKILLFUL TREATMENT OF DR. ABORN.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted for three years, and that I kept declining slowly until the latter part of last May, when I was taken down suddenly, since which time, as before, I could get no relief. My disease baffled the skill of every attempt, and only left me weaker, until death would have been a relief at many times. Four weeks ago to-night I placed myself under the care of Dr. Aborn, whose treatment gave me immediate relief, and I continued to gain so rapidly until now, after using his medicine only four weeks, I have gained fifteen and one-half pounds, and feel like a new man.

Passive Democracy.

It would seem that the idea that the Democratic party should make no nomination for President next year, but support some disaffected Republican, is gaining ground. This proposition was first distinctly broached by the St. Louis Republican, the leading Democratic organ of that city, and it is stated that seventeen Democratic papers of Missouri have already expressed concurrence with it. We give some extracts from the Republican, which will serve to show the general course of its argument. One of its articles begins thus:

> The grave difficulty that the Democracy have encountered in all the national contests since 1860 has been their inability to dictate the issues of those contests. They enter every campaign to find the issues already dictated and defined by their opponents. They are not able to select the field of action; they are compelled, at great disadvantage, to fight on a field chosen by their opponents, and to take the position which their opponents assign to them. They have endeavored to wage the campaigns on the tariff, taxation, amnesty, civil service reform, and the legitimate, constitutional rights of the States; but they have signally failed in every instance, because the dominant party refuses to permit the country to forget the war.

Democrats undoubtedly consider it a grievance that Republicans will not allow them to make up the issues to suit themselves. Could they do this they think they might have better success. The Democratic party should remember that their position in respect to the war, its memories and results, is one of their own choosing. That they are not in a position to be advantaged by the war and its results is their own fault. To talk about "forgetting the war" is superlative nonsense. When Democrats were opposing the war for the Union and giving aid and comfort to the rebellion, they were making up a record to stand against them much longer than they thought. They cannot induce the country by talking vaguely about "reforms" and the "constitutional rights of the States," to forget what the Democratic party has been. Such is its record that no "reformers" are expected from that party; and as for the "constitutional rights of the States," we had their idea of that in 1861, and all through the rebellion.

The Republican proceeds to express its further dissatisfaction with Republicans because they "appeal to the war spirit;" and it thinks if this course were abandoned the Democracy might have some chance. It goes on to say:

> If the dominant party is to be overthrown at all, it must be done by depriving it of this power, and directing the popular attention to other subjects. A withdrawal of the Democracy from the field would, we think, effect this. Such a withdrawal would remove the war from our politics, and it is, perhaps, the only thing that can remove it. The Administration mastership of the situation would be destroyed; liberal Republicans would owe to the Democracy their release from subjection to President Grant; the Democracy would owe to liberal Republicans the release of the South from its semi-military rule; and the country would owe to both its deliverance from the dangers of a disastrous centralization.

Such is the "passive" course proposed for the Democracy by those who despair of a victory on a direct issue between the parties. It is not difficult to foresee that the adoption of this course would effect the disbandment and complete ruin of the Democratic party, and that the disaffected Republican candidate for President, who would be forced to rely on Democrats for his votes, would be beaten even more completely than a regular out-and-out Democratic candidate would be. So much for the "passive" dodge. The signs are that that party will be passive enough in the next campaign, without the necessity of trying to be more so.

Distribution of the Spoils.

Disclosures have been made in New York City which prove that the thieves of the Ring invariably divided the money they stole according to a prearranged plan, and an examination of their accounts with the bank show that whenever Ingersoll & Co. deposited their own warrants they invariably gave to

Woodward	42 per cent.
Kept for themselves	34 per cent.
For Tweed	24 per cent.
Total	100 per cent.

When they deposited any other than the above named, they gave to

Woodward, for himself	42 per cent.
For Tweed	24 per cent.
Kept for themselves	34 per cent.
Total	100 per cent.

When Garvey received his warrants he invariably gave to

Woodward (for Woodward)	42 per cent.
Woodward, for Tweed	24 per cent.
Kept for himself	34 per cent.
Total	100 per cent.

If any additional proof were wanted to establish the nature of Tammany's transactions the above would be decisive.

There is a woman in Minnesota who goes off every now and then into "trance periods," during which times she makes astonishing revelations regarding the future. Much excitement is the result. Some of her disclosures are not very hard to believe, either. For instance, she says that George Francis Train will shortly be put into an insane asylum, and that Theodore Tilton will elope with Mrs. Woodhull. She also says that Robinson Crusoe is the man for the Democrats to nominate for President of the United States. This last suggestion is a good one. Robinson would make quite as good a candidate as any other dead man that the party can nominate,—not excepting even Pendleton, Hendricks, Hoffman, Chase or the Cardiff Giant.

The dispatches mention the arrest of Tom Fields, a prominent Tammany official in New York city. It is a little matter of $4,589,779, which Fields swindled the city out of by means of fraudulent claims alleged to be due the old Fire Department. Fields got these claims allowed, and of course became a rich man, built a country seat nearly as expensive as Tweed's, and in general supported the character of a "leading Democrat." Like Tweed, Oakey Hall and the Democratic press of Oregon, Fields thinks the "Federal Government dreadfully corrupt."

Objection is made by the Herald to the form of the memorial respecting the Salt Lake branch railroad grant, which was adopted at the meeting last Friday evening. That paper is quite unfriendly to such grants. It may not be amiss to remind it that the Democratic Legislature of this State in 1868 unanimously adopted a strong memorial to Congress asking for this same grant of lands for a railroad from Salt Lake to Portland. See Senate Journal of 1868, page 175, and House Journal, same session, pages 90 and 91.

The Herald calls the great central organization of its party, "villainous Tammany." The Chief of that organization has been elected to a high office by an immense majority. Democratic votes did it. The question now is whether Tammany is more "villainous" than the party that thus stands by Tammany's Chief.

Gotham Agog.

The Russian Prince is hourly expected at New York, and that city, which always reserves its greatest efforts for occasions like this, is making every preparation to do an immense thing in the way of a reception. Evidently there is a glorious time at hand for flunkies and flash journalism. The demonstrations are likely to exceed the propriety of a respectful and even of a cordial reception; for New York usually carries these things to extremes. The people of the United States feel very friendly toward Russia, for the simple reason that she has always been our friend; and any one coming among us as a representative of Russia would always be sure of a welcome. Wise ones, or wiseacres, see in this visit of the Russian Grand Duke a diplomatic mission that bodes great events in the other hemisphere. They regard his advent among us as a costly and ostentatious effort to win the favor of Americans as a step in the accomplishment of Russia's grand designs in Europe and Asia. They point to the fact that Russia has of late been augmenting her armies enormously; that she has recently obtained the repeal of the treaty restrictions upon her designs on the Black Sea; that she is pushing steadily eastward and southward through Asia, and that by recent acquisitions she controls a broad belt of country extending to the very foot of the Himalaya mountains which barrier now alone separates her from Northern India. Hence those who see into the mysteries of statecraft with telescopic vision are convinced that the present Czar conceives himself on the eve of realizing the dream of Peter the Great, when the dominions of the Muscovite will extend from the Northern Cape on the Arctic to Cape Comorin on the Indian ocean. And, says one of these seers, fond of anticipating history: "Counting upon success in this stupendous enterprise, or possibly hoping to secure aid in its prosecution, the Czar makes court through his son to the power which must share control of the Northern Pacific with the ruler that governs India. And herein lies the whole secret of the mission of Alexis." When we read this we wonder why some people think it worth while to wait till history is acted and written before they read it, when they might just as well read it beforehand. It will strike most of people of the practical and sensible sort that the visit of the Russian Prince is a kind of commonplace affair, easily enough accounted for in these times of friendly and rapid communication between distant nations, without the necessity of supposing that he comes here to clear the way for future proposals in the interest of Russia for her acquisition of Constantinople and British India.

A Campaign Against Official Dishonesty.

[From the San Francisco Bulletin.]

The prominence given to the corruptions of the Tammany ring in New York city, seemed to have aroused the Federal authorities to greater vigilance against dishonesty in the service of the General Government; the proceedings in such cases are now being prosecuted with promptness and vigor, in strong contrast to the uncertain progress made in the face of the almost innumerable obstacles and delays encountered in the metropolis. Following the swift conviction of the defaulting Paymaster, Hodge, who within three months, after his detection was sent to the Penitentiary, comes the arrest of ex-Congressman Stokes, now holding a position in the Revenue Bureau, together with a chief clerk in one of the Departments, for the Tennessee bounty frauds. These were perpetrated under a bill introduced at the spring session of Congress in 1870, for the relief of David Beatty and others. In the preamble it was recited that early in the war, Beatty had organized a company of "scouts," numbering a hundred and two men, who, though never mustered into the United States army, had served in Tennessee in aid of the Union cause, until the close of hostilities, and in the enacting clause it was provided that they should receive pay and bounty as though they had been regularly mustered in.

The bill was passed without any particular inquiry, just as many similar bills were passed, the recital in the preamble being accepted as true. Thereupon Mr. Stokes, then a Congressman, began to figure at the Department in behalf of these claimants, with powers of attorney from them authorizing him to receive the money; and, in that way, he drew for the hundred and two scouts the entire pay and bounty awarded, $111,029. The fact that, to put it mildly, notwithstanding the insalubrity of the service, every man of Beatty's scouts had survived the war, and that many of them, five years after, were sufficiently well preserved to put in their claims, seems at least to have excited suspicion. Inquiry was made, and it was soon developed that a number of the names were purely fictitious, the proofs, affidavits, etc., in the cases represented by these dummies, being sheer forgeries, and it now begins to be open to doubt whether in fact there was any such company unless in the barn-yard service. The case is being pushed sharply, and the perpetrators of these frauds, including those in complicity with them in the Departments, have an opportunity to receive their just deserts. It is probable, also, that an investigation of the bounty claims of other irregular troops, under the numerous special acts so prolific of frauds, will bring to light similar actions.

Next is the expose of thievery, for no milder term adequately describes it, of the same sort, by a branch of the notorious Indian Ring. It consisted in drawing pay and bounty for Creek, Cherokee and Seminole Indians who also died during its progress or since, or were fictitious personages. The extent of these peculations has not yet been made public, but is estimated at about $400,000, not a cent of which ever reached the gentle savages. It is to be trusted that this case will serve as an opening wedge, to make the way for punishment of the other many iniquities practiced in connection with Indian affairs.

But the greatest frauds have been discovered in the matter of the sales of the confiscated rebel cotton, and are now to be thoroughly ventilated. From the testimony brought out in a case in the Court of Claims it appears that the officials entrusted with the sale of this cotton formed a ring for purchase which bought up nearly all of it, at about twenty-nine cents a pound, when the market rates were seventy-five cents. This was consummated by the exhibition to bona fide bidders of samples provided for the occasion, of damaged cotton, and stories were circulated of the bales having been buried. The amount realized by the Government from these sales was, in round numbers, thirty millions; and if the facts now reported be correct, the stealing was between twenty and thirty millions, possibly more. These operations will, it is understood, be explored thoroughly, and there is reason to believe that the guilty parties will be brought to justice and some part of the money recovered; for, happily, no ring has yet been developed that is known to be able to shield swindlers of the General Government from punishment.

The Boston Transcript mentions a case of prophetic preaching. On the terrible Sunday of the Chicago fire, while graceful Hartford had, as yet, no knowledge of that calamity, the preacher at Old Center Church, addressing, in the broad aisle of that edifice, several millions of the well-known Hartford insurance stocks, preached from this text: "If any man build on this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble, every man's work shall be made manifest; for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire, and the fire shall try every man's work, of what sort."

A Chicago young lady writes to her lover postponing the wedding a year, and remarks that he would be surprised to see her after the fire, from which she emerged with a wardrobe consisting of a pair of pantaloons, one slipper, and a waterproof.

BORN IN THE STAGE.—The Pioche Record of October 26th, is responsible for the annexed: An extremely rare incident occurred on the last stage from Hamilton to Pioche, which arrived on Friday evening last. Shortly after leaving Hamilton, a lady passenger named Mrs. McCarthy gave birth to a fine healthy boy. The event was as unexpected and surprising to the mother as to the balance of the passengers. On the examination of the waybill, Wes. Travis, one of the owners of the line, found only sixteen passengers were booked, but learned from a passenger that seventeen had come through. In high dudgeon he sought the agent, L. A. LaGrange, and at once inquired how this had occurred, and wanted to know who the "dead-head" was. After the matter was fully explained, Wes. could be seen slipping off down the street without saying a word to any one. Whenever anybody now asks Wes. about "that other passenger," all he has to say is, "Nominate your poison, gentlemen, it's my treat."

A Nebraska man has invented a powerful, double-acting salve, which shows power never before exhibited by salves of any kind. The inventor accidentally cut off the tail of a tame wolf, and immediately applying some of the salve to the stump, a new tail grew out. Then picking up the old tail, he applied some of the salve to the raw end of that, and a wolf grew out; but he was a wild wolf and had to be shot.

The editor of a magazine in New York city has actually received MSS. from persons who say that they "have had no experience in writing, no intellectual training of any kind in fact; but wanted to make money by their pens so as to be able to give themselves the education they feel they stand in need of."

REMARKABLE CURE OF THE DEPUTY JAILER OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY JAIL.

"The work goes bravely on." Case No. 5,240—Second series.

CITY JAIL, PORTLAND, Oregon,
June 7, 1871.

A. M. LORYEA & Co.: I was attacked with a severe case of rheumatism. It was in my thighs, hips, fingers, shoulder blade—indeed in all the joints of my body I suffered great pain and anguish. I was attended by a regular physician, but with no effect. I was induced to try your Oak Weed Remedy, and it immediately cured me up. I consider it, from my experience, the best remedy for rheumatism known.

ALFRED F. TURNER, Deputy Jailer.

TESTIMONIAL.

We the undersigned having been the recipients of the services of Mrs. M. C. White in teaching the science of Music on the Pianoforte, take pleasure in giving a hearty testimonial that we have employed her in our families as a teacher of her "New Method of Instruction," and that it has proven superior to any method we have ever known. And that although the first cost may be a trifle greater than some others, we believe it to be in the aggregate much cheaper, beside being a great economy in point of time. We, therefore, take pleasure in recommending her to the patronage of all who may be desirous of obtaining a musical education, as a very superior instructor.

To those who desire to know more about it before incurring any expense, we give a cordial invitation to call at our homes and interview her pupils.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 14, 1871.

CITY.

ROBBERY.—A man named Wilson was arrested yesterday on a charge of robbery. Late yesterday afternoon Wilson, who is known to the police as a notorious thief, was seen by officer Hudson coming down Salmon street toward Front with a bundle under his arm, which he was endeavoring to conceal. The officer, thinking that the fellow had just committed a theft and was endeavoring to get away with the proceeds, watched his movements, and upon seeing him making tracks toward the establishment of a second-hand dealer, who labors under the suspicion of being a receiver of stolen goods, concluded to overhaul his man and examine the contents of the bundle. This he did, and upon accosting Wilson inquired what he had in the package under his arm. Wilson replied that it was nothing, only his washing. This did not satisfy the officer, who forthwith made an examination of the package, resulting in the discovery of a large quantity of female wearing apparel and bed clothing. As Wilson could give no satisfactory answer as to how he came into possession of these articles he was taken to jail. After arriving there he was searched, which resulted in finding concealed about his person a lot of jewelry, a number of valuable papers and notes, and also a small sum of money. The papers and notes gave the officer a clue as to who had been robbed. The gentleman, whose name is W. P. Jones, and who resides on the corner of Seventh and Madison streets, was informed of what had taken place, and in company with the officer, immediately repaired to his residence. Upon their arrival there they found everything in a state of confusion. Mr. Jones' family, who had been absent, had just a moment before returned home, and, finding that during their absence the house had been entered and robbed, were terribly excited. In one of the bed-rooms was found an old, worn-out pair of shoes, which Wilson had exchanged for a new pair of French calf skin boots belonging to Mr. Jones. Upon an examination it was found that all the missing property had been recovered, save the boots, which were subsequently taken from Wilson and his shoes returned to him. The notes found on the person of Wilson called for sums amounting to $2,500. Wilson is an old thief, having just finished a term in the county jail, where he had been sent for twenty-five days for stealing a shawl. He had been discharged from that institution but a few hours when he was taken into custody by officer Hudson yesterday. The chances are that he will do the State some service in the brick-making line.

ABOUT A COW.—Mr. Wilson is the owner of a cow that is in the habit of roaming around the streets, contrary to an ordinance of the city "in such cases made and provided." In her perambulations she came across Charles Lawrence, who occupies the position of City Pound-keeper. Mr. Lawrence, as is his duty, took the cow into keeping, and for better security placed her in a shed or barn, called, for the want of a more appropriate name, "The City Pound." This shed at night, or in the absence of the keeper, is locked, and the key safely deposited in the pantaloons pocket of the aforesaid individual. Mr. Wilson, upon discovering that his favorite cow was missing, made straight way for the City Pound, and much to his disgust found, upon looking through a knot hole in the side of the building, that the animal was there, and what was more, that she was locked in. In order to get the animal out it was necessary either to procure the key or break the lock, and presuming that the easiest way to accomplish this was to pursue the latter plan, which he immediately put into execution, resulting in the liberty of the beast and the arrest of himself. He was taken before Judge Denny yesterday morning, and, thinking that the offence was a trifling one, indicated his desire to plead guilty, but being informed that the matter was serious, and would have to be investigated by the Grand Jury, concluded that instead of pleading guilty, he would waive a preliminary examination and take his chances before that body.

PASSENGERS FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Ajax sailed yesterday afternoon for San Francisco, carrying the following passengers: H A Webster, Sam Rutledge, J S Walker, U S A, A W Robinson, Silas Wightman, Moses D Wilson, A M Osborn, Jesse Applegate, S G Whiteman, J F McLane, G H Wilson, J R Morse, Miss Mary Manning, Mrs Clayton, P Williams, A D Butler and wife, L Pembroe, A C Swift, E C Bigham, Miss N Zane, Mrs M McLaughlin, Alice Stillman, J Ballard, J K Steene, Charles Tomecoit, F Lossen, H Baily, Wilson Olney, J P Cowing, Miss Minnie Bell, Mrs Barrett, Francis Fallar, G Burringer, J F Bowers, Louis Bergeloe, Mrs L A Mitchell, Robert Imbrie, I Freeman, T B Harris, L Hirshfeld, L D Beldon, G W Canterbury, Mrs McNamara, Seth Allard, W, F & Co's messenger and 74 in steerage.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE STORY.—It will be recollected that a few days since we published an item about the cruel desertion of his family by a man well known in this community, and who has for years been employed in the capacity of a drayman. The man referred to, since the publication of the article, has returned, and tells a far different story. He says that instead of deserting his family, his wife is in the habit of deserting him, and that he has not lived at home for several months; and that all the furniture he disposed of was a small bedstead, which was the only article of furniture that he laid claim to. He is regarded by his employers and those acquainted with him, as a hard-working, sober and reliable man—one who would spurn to do anything that would in any way cast a blot on his character.

KIDNAPPING.—Considerable excitement was occasioned in the Chinese quarters yesterday by the fact that a China girl, who was kidnapped several months ago, and of whose whereabouts nothing could be ascertained, had been smuggled on the Garibaldi and had left for China. The Chinaman who claims the girl was very anxious to recover her, but as the vessel had several hours the start before it was ascertained that she was on board, the pursuit was abandoned.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.—A call for a meeting to be held this afternoon at the Oro Fino Theater to organize a "Woman Suffrage Association," has been issued. The call, which will be found elsewhere, invites all who believe in the practical application of the principle of "no taxation without representation," to take part in the movement, the object of which is to secure concert of action among the women of this city and county.

WAIVED AN EXAMINATION.—Sawyer and Johns arrested on Saturday night on the charge of assaulting a man on board the Fannie Troup with intent to kill, were arraigned yesterday morning in the Police Court and waived an examination. They were, accordingly, committed to await the action of the Grand Jury, now in session.

STEALING BLANKETS.—A man giving his name as Williams was arrested yesterday afternoon by officer Hudson on the charge of stealing a pair of blankets from a house some three miles from the city. It is alleged that during the absence of the occupants, Williams broke into the house and committed the theft.

ARREST OF A WITNESS.—A young woman, an important witness in one of the criminal actions now pending before the Grand Jury, was arrested yesterday afternoon on board the steamship Ajax just as the vessel was about to leave.

CONTINUED.—Owing to the continued illness of the defendant, the examination of "Wrestling Joe," or Davidson, on the charge of perjury was, yesterday, in the Police Court, continued until this morning at half past ten o'clock.

RAILROAD MEMORIAL.—The railroad memorial adopted at the meeting Friday evening is being signed very generally by our citizens. We have heard no objection to it, from any quarter, except from the Oregon Herald.

FOR PORTLAND.—A telegram from San Francisco states that the next steamer leaving that port for Portland will be the Oriflamme, sailing on Friday next.

INSANE.—During the past month the number of patients sent to the Asylum from this county has averaged one a week.

PERSONAL.

Col. W. W. Chapman will leave to-morrow morning via the Columbia river and Boise, for Washington. He will probably speak to the people at various points between here and Salt Lake, in behalf of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad enterprise.

Hon. Jas. H. Slater, member of Congress from this State, arrived in the city last night and is stopping at the Cosmopolitan Hotel. Mr. Slater is on his way to Washington, leaving here on the next steamer for San Francisco.

J. W. Virtue, of Baker county, one of the Commissioners recently appointed by the President to attend the Centennial Celebration of Independence at Philadelphia, is also at the Cosmopolitan.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

WILLAMETTE NURSERY.—G. W. Walling & Co. have moved their headquarters to Portland. They have the finest assortment of cherry, plum, pear and prune trees that have ever been in this market. Office at Odd Fellows' Hall.

FROM WALLA WALLA.—From a gentleman just down from Walla Walla, we learn that business of all kinds is good, and the town is now full of strangers. Wheat in that place is only worth 65 cents per bushel, owing to the great want of transportation. This will be remedied by another year, as the Walla Walla and Columbia River Railroad Company are now busy making arrangements to push the building of this road ahead so as to have it completed by the 1st of October, 1872. The new Overland Hotel has changed hands, and is now being run by Capt. J. B. Dexter, and is daily crowded. This is one of the best paying institutions in Walla Walla.

THE FINAL REPORT OF THE U. S. GRAND JURY has not been made, but all sorts of rumors are prevalent, and one especially, affecting the business prospects of one of our most enterprising merchants. It is currently reported that at a special meeting of the Jurors a sort of love feast was had, and each told his experiences and of the things he had seen in Portland. The general impression was, that so far as their outward appearances were concerned, they could not be better improved than by donning some of the fashionably cut clothing for sale at Barman's. It was therefore unanimously resolved that all purchases of clothing and gents furnishing goods be made at the above named establishment, corner of Washington and Front streets.

A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT.—Be it known to the People of Portland and the surrounding country, that at the extensive clothing establishment of Kohn & Fishel, 91 Front street, they are selling new and stylish suits for Fall and Winter wear at prices that are astonishingly low. Call at this House and examine the large stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods. You will come away satisfied.

PERKINS & HOUSE'S SAFETY LAMPS

It is perfectly non-explosive. The light is better than is produced by any other lamp. I believe it to be true economy in view of the safety, the quality and quantity of the light produced, and the durability of this lamp, to throw away all other kinds and use this only.

PROF. W. S. CLARK,

I know it to be by far the best light we have ever used in our family. I know of nothing that can compare with it. I prefer it to any gas burner I have ever seen. For safety, for economy, and for the perfection of the light, it deserves to come into universal use.

What Dyspepsia may End in.

Indigestion is not dangerous say the faculty. Perhaps not in itself, while it remains mere indigestion; but look at the consequences to which it may lead, and often does end when it becomes a chronic disease. A spark of fire is a small thing. A pressure of the foot will put it out; a breath will extinguish it. Yet it may fire a powder mill, or kindle a flame that will consume a city. In like manner indigestion may produce gastritis, cancer of the stomach, congestion of the bowels, apoplexy, liver disease, and many other dangerous maladies. Is it not wise, then, to check it in the germ? Nothing is more clearly and indisputably established than that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will eradicate dyspepsia in all its stages. The true policy, however, is to extinguish it in the first stages with this wholesome, powerful, and infallible tonic and alterative. It is easier to quench a spark than a flame, and it is easier to cure dyspepsia when it is first developed than when it has made headway by neglect, and becomes complicated with other ailments. There is not the shadow of a doubt that the bitters are as directly antagonistic to dyspepsia as water is to fire. There are thousands of cases on record proving this fact. The remedy is safe and agreeable. All the liquors of commerce prescribed as stimulants leave a sting behind. But the sting is taken out of the spirituous basis of this great remedy by vegetable medication, and, moreover, the stimulant thus medicated is of exceptional purity. Of all tonics taken as safeguards or remedies for fever and ague, bilious remittent, and other fall epidemics, it is the only one that can uniformly be depended upon.

AN UNPREJUDICED PHYSICIAN

INTERVIEWED.

Bold Opinions Truly Expressed.

POPULARITY IS NOT ALWAYS A proof of desert. Every newspaper man knows that. Many articles are engineered into temporary popularity that have no intrinsic merit whatever. It is an easy thing to make sweeping assertions and sow them broadcast in the columns of the public press. But there is a class of experienced and thoughtful birds, not to be caught with chaff, like Captain Cuttle, they want "an opinion as is an opinion," in other words, the judgment of competent and disinterested authority, as a basis for their own.

Several of these cautious individuals having done us the honor to invite an expression of opinion in these columns on the properties of the much talked of Tonic known as PLANTATION BITTERS, we have taken the pains to obtain from a distinguished physician whose ability and integrity of purpose no one will venture to question, what may fairly be deemed a conclusive answer to the questions of our correspondents. Dr. Elias Kennedy Whitmarsh, as a surgeon, pathologist and chemist, has few superiors west of the Alleghanies, and the following conversation which occurred a few days ago between that gentleman and one of our staff, is offered, without comment, for the information of "whom it may concern:"

REPORTER.—Have you any objection to state your views in relation to a medicinal preparation which has obtained great celebrity in this country? The object is to ascertain whether the reputation is deserved or not.

DR. WHITMARSH—If I know anything about the article, I'll tell you what I think of it. How is it named?

REPORTER—PLANTATION BITTERS.

DR. WHITMARSH—Well, it is a wholesome vegetable tonic.

REPORTER—Anything else?

WHITMARSH—Yes, it has a mild aperient property, and produces a salutary effect upon the liver when that organ is diseased.

REPORTER—It contains alcohol I understand—Santa Croix Rum.

DR. WHITMARSH—Of course it contains a diffusive stimulant. If it did not its medicinal ingredients would be comparatively inert. They are rendered operative by the alcoholic principle.

REPORTER—Supposing that theory to be correct, is Santa Croix Rum a good article for that purpose?

DR. WHITMARSH—The best I think. It is more nutricious and far less exciting than the spirits made from grapes or grain.

REPORTER—But are stimulants really necessary at all in medical treatment?

DR. WHITMARSH—Sir, if you had ever practiced medicine you would not ask the question. They are an essential portion of the materia medica. Every intelligent member of the profession knows that. The physician who denies it is either a hypocrite or a fool.

REPORTER—Do you consider a medicated stimulant like the PLANTATION BITTERS preferable to simple alcohol? In other words, would the Santa Croix Rum be as useful without the other ingredients as with them?

DR. WHITMARSH—Certainly not. Among those ingredients are Extract of Dandelion, one of the finest antibilious medicines I know of; Calisaya Bark, of all tonics the best; and Chamomile, an admirable stomachic. The remedial powers of these curatives is increased probably tenfold by the nutritive stimulant with which they are incorporated.

REPORTER—You seem to have a high opinion of the Bitters.

DR. WHITMARSH—I simply state facts, sir. You must draw your own conclusions.

REPORTER—May I ask if you ever prescribed PLANTATION BITTERS for your patients?

DR. WHITMARSH—I do, frequently. All that I have said to you is founded on my own experience. I never make positive statements on unsubstantial grounds.

REPORTER—I am sure of that. Excuse me for having trespassed so long on your valuable time. Good evening.

We presume the correspondents who have addressed us on the subject of PLANTATION BITTERS, will consider their questions satisfactorily answered by the remarks of Dr. Whitmarsh.

It has now an income of over Seven Millions of Dollars, and the interest on its investments, with premium on gold, &c., has been sufficient during the past two years to pay accruing losses.

4th. NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES. It originated the system of non-forfeiture of policies, and to it the public are indebted for a feature so favorable to the insured.

5th. SUICIDE does not cause a forfeiture of the policy, that being considered an evidence of insanity, and insanity the result of disease.

6th. DIVIDENDS. Its dividends are declared annually, and are available immediately as cash in payment of premiums. Many companies declare their premiums annually, but do not pay them till several years thereafter; others defer their declarations for two, three or four years from the time the policy commences. In this Company a party always has a dividend which can be used in the payment of the second and all subsequent annual premiums.

7th. ITS DIVIDEND SYSTEM is the "Contribution Plan," by which each member is charged with the exact cost of his insurance, and receives back his surplus payments. These dividends can remain with the Company, participating in its earnings, and be used at any subsequent period in the payment of premiums.

8th. LIBERALITY IN SETTLEMENT OF LOSSES. Experience has shown that cases arise where policies, although EQUITABLY claims, are not LEGALLY so. The records of this Company bear many acknowledgements from widows and relatives of deceased members of its liberality and fairness in settlement of all such losses. There being no stockholders in the Company to share its profits, interests adverse to policy-holders cannot possibly arise, the Trustees simply occupying the position of arbitrators between the members, with no inducement to take from one and give to another.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

FOUNDED IN THE YEAR 1820.

Adopted Mutual System in the year 1861.

ACCUMULATED CAPITAL OVER..........$16,000,000.

ITS ANNUAL INCOME OVER..........6,000,000.

WHOLE NUMBER OF POLICIES ISSUED TO DATE, NEARLY..........100,000.

NUMBER OF POLICIES ISSUED IN 1870..........11,317.

THE ÆTNA RANKS AS ONE OF THE FIRST COMPANIES IN THE LAND

IN INCOME,
IN ASSETS,
IN NUMBER OF POLICIES,
IN AMOUNT INSURED,
IN SOLIDITY AND STRENGTH,
IN SOUNDNESS,
CHEAPNESS,
PROMPTNESS
AND SUCCESS.

THE AMOUNT OF DIVIDEND A COMPANY CAN PAY ITS INSURED, DEPENDS UPON THE RATES charged for insurance, the AMOUNT of business done, the EXPENSE of doing it, the INTEREST on its investments, the CARE exercised in the selection of its risks, and the TIME when such dividends are paid. In regard to these, as also all other points, the ÆTNA is unsurpassed in advantages by any other Insurance Company in the United States.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the Ætna:—"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution. Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

The New York Independent says of the Ætna Life:—"It is to-day one of the soundest and most reliable Insurance Companies in the United States—every dollar of its assets well secured, more than providing for all liabilities; and it eminently deserves a still greater patronage and the unhesitating confidence of the public."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

MONDAY EVENING, Nov. 13, 1871.

Gold at New York has weakened a little, being quoted to-day at 111¾@112.

Portland Legal Tender quotations, 89c buying, and 89¾c selling.

Business to-day is mostly confined to filling orders for the Upper Columbia. In this the leading wholesale houses have been closely engaged; but, otherwise, the city has been rather quiet.

The bark Alice Grithers was hauled over to-day to the east side dock, and commenced taking cargo.

The ship Bristolian went out over the Columbia river bar last Thursday, all right.

The bark Windward sailed from San Francisco to-day for this port. She brings nearly a thousand tons of oats, lime and general merchandise.

The following vessels are now en route from foreign ports to Portland, consigned to Hewitt, Flowerdew & Co.: Br ship Cheliah, 116 days out; Am bk Metis, 104 days out; Br bk Sparkling Dew—put into Rio in distress, expected to sail out about the 1st September—181 days out; Br bk Harrington, 141 days out; Br bk Alden Bessee, 125 days out. The Sparkling Dew is first looked for; then the Harrington, Bessee, Cheliah, and last the Metis. The Br bk Barraconta, consigned to Janion & Rhodes, is 131 days out, and soon expected.

We noticed on the O. S. N. Co.'s wharf to-day a large lot of salmon in barrels, half barrels and kits—about 500 pkgs—put up expressly for Corbett, Failing & Co., to be shipped to New York, to Corbett & Co. The packages were the neatest and best looking that we have seen this year. They were put up at the "Manhattan Fishery, by Barman & Watson Bros., Clatsop. Our Columbia salmon are in high repute in the New York market, which we doubt not, will be enhanced by the fine condition of this shipment. The lot will go by steamer to San Francisco, and thence to New York.

The Eugene Guard reports that the sale of lots at the new railroad town of Creswell was not very successful, only one lot being sold at auction.

Last Saturday's quotations for produce at Eugene City were as follows: Flour, $5@6 50; Wheat, best white, $1; Oats, 75c.; Butter, fresh roll, 37½c.; Eggs, 25c.; Potatoes, $1; Lard, tins, 15c.—in bulk, 12½c.; Bacon, sides, 12½c.; Hams, 15c.; Shoulders, 8@10c.

The steamship Ajax sailed [illegible] for San Francisco, with a full freight of produce.

Sydney dates are to Sept. 28th. A dull market for breadstuffs is reported. A consignment of extra Flour realized only £12 15s to £13 per ton. Sydney best extras, £13 10, and best Adelaide £14@£15 per ton. At Melbourne Flour was quoted at £13@£14 and Adelaide Wheat at 6s.

The Gold shipments from Australia for the first nine months of the year aggregate 1,850,400 ounces, valued at upwards of $20,000,000, against 1,136,500 ounces for the same time last year. Included in the quantity for this year was 117,300 ounces from the New Zealand gold fields, against 101,000 [illegible] same time 1870.

Auckland advices of [illegible] 6th report heavy receipts of Flour during the month [illegible] the market, which ruled nominal at £14@15 per ton. [illegible] Wheat, 6s 6d; Canterbury Wheat, 6s@6s 6d.

The recent destruction of the North Pacific whaling fleet will [illegible] exert a visible influence upon the price of Whale and Sperm Oils for the next year. Last year the New Bedford fleet brought home, from Jan. 1st to Oct. 23d—the whaling season—34,600 bbls sperm and 70,203 bbls Whale Oil. The present year, the receipts were 39,000 bbls Sperm and 72,000 bbls Whale Oil. The vessels saved had only an aggregate of 2,765 bbls Whale and 300 bbls Sperm Oil. The vessels lost had cargoes aggregating 12,200 bbls Whale and 900 bbls Sperm Oil. The following are lists of vessels lost and saved with the cargo of each at the time of the disaster. Lost—Concordia, 650 barrels whale oil; Gay Head, 550; George, 300; John Wells, 300; Massachusetts, 350; J. D. Thompson, 100 sperm and 170 do; Contest, 850; E. Morgan, 150; Champion, 270 sperm and 300 do; Henry Taber, 300; E. Swift 700; Florida, 650; O. Crocker, 200; Navy, 250 sperm and 400 do; Reindeer, 600; Seneca, 450; Fanny, 30. Geo. Howland, 800; Monticello, 270 sperm and 630 do; Carlotta, 700; Paiea, 100; Kohola, 150; Eugenia, 250; Julian, 40 sperm and 200 do; Awashonks, clean; T. Dickason, [illegible]; [illegible], 130; Wm. Rotch, 200; Mary, 300; Roman, 650; Comet, 30. Saved—Arctic, 480 barrels; Progress, 250 [illegible] sperm and 280 whale; Daniel Webster, 250; Lagoda, 125; Europa, 330; Midas 450, 140 sperm. The last steamer from Honolulu brought the following news relating to this subject: "Arrived at Honolulu, October 21—Bark Oak, Russell, fm Galapagos Islands, 24 months out, 60 bbls sperm oil; 23d—Haw. whale bark Arctic, Tripp, fm Arctic, 480 bbls whale oil, 4800 lbs bone; bark Daniel Webster, Marlon, fm Artic, 250 bbls whale oil, 3000 lbs bone; bark Progress, Dowden, fm Arctic, 250 bbls whale oil, 3000 lbs bone; ship Europa, [illegible] fm Arctic, 330 bbls whale oil 4000 lbs bone; 24th—Bk Midas, Hamill, fm Arctic, 450 bbls whale oil, 5000 lbs bone."

Merchandise Market.

COFFEE—The market is heavy at last [illegible]. Mail advices from New York of October 28th, note a quiet market, especially for Rio, as the result of heavy purchases in Brazil on account of the United States. Prices were sustained, however, under a further advance at Rio. All the Java in first hands had been closed out, and the stock of this kind in New York and Boston does not exceed 25,000 mats, and is held by parties who control the market until the 1st of February next.

DRY GOODS—The market is rather quiet, the chief requirements being for the country east of the mountains to [illegible]. The following table of imports at New York for the first ten months of 1871, is from the Journal of Commerce of Oct. 28. It shows a large excess over the imports of the preceding two years:

BOOTS AND SHOES—Within the last month, prices have advanced nearly 10 per cent., owing to the destruction of [illegible] stocks in the Chicago conflagration; and the recent advance of freights per Union and Central Pacific railroads. Supplies are none too large for local and interior demands.
